10.6. Warning under the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act

In this warning, references to "the supplier" mean PARC, and references to "you" mean you and your child.

Under the Australian Consumer Law (Victoria), several statutory guarantees apply to the supply of certain goods and services. These guarantees mean that the supplier named on this form is required to ensure that the recreational services it supplies to you—

- are rendered with due care and skill;
- are reasonably fit for any purpose which you, either expressly or by implication, make known to the supplier; and
- might reasonably be expected to achieve any result you have made known to the supplier.

Under section 22 of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012, the supplier is entitled to ask you to agree that these statutory guarantees do not apply to you. If you sign this form, you will be agreeing that your rights to sue the supplier under the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012 if you are killed or injured because the services provided were not in accordance with these guarantees, are excluded, restricted or modified in the way set out in this form.

NOTE: The change to your rights, as set out in this form, does not apply if your death or injury is due to gross negligence on the supplier's part. "Gross" negligence, in relation to an act or omission, means doing the act or omitting to do an act with reckless disregard, with or without consciousness, for the consequences of the act or omission. See regulation 5 of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Regulations 2012 and section 22(3)(b) of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012.

11.1. You indemnify and keep indemnified PARC for all costs, losses, expenses or damages which PARC suffers or incurs due to:

- a) your breach of this Agreement;
- b) any damage to property or injury to another person which is wholly or partially caused by you during your use or entry to the Facilities.

12. Privacy

12.1. In providing the Service, PARC may collect your personal information. You agree that PARC may collect, store, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with its Privacy Policy. A copy of PARC's privacy policy may be found at www.parcfrankston.com.au.

12.2. We sometimes film or photograph PARC, so it is possible you will appear in the background. By signing the Membership Application Form, you allow us to use your image in promotional and other business related material.

13. General Clauses

13.1. The law of Victoria governs this Agreement. The parties consent to the jurisdiction of the Courts of the State of Victoria and their Courts of Appeal in relation to this Agreement.

13.2. If any provision of this Agreement is judged invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity or unenforceability (unless deletion of such provision would materially adversely affect one of the parties) will not affect the operation or interpretation of any other provision of this Agreement to the intent that the invalid or unenforceable provision will be treated as severed from this Agreement.
